A. Course Description: - Prerequisite: Approval of the program coordinator. A hands-on course, applying the production process using skills in operating performing arts equipment, from recording live performances to creating long-form productions, using raw footage and the post production process in individual and group projects.

B. Course Learning Outcomes: The student will demonstrate the techniques of the production process to create a production. Each student will work in every position of the production team and demonstrate the ability to operate specific equipment used in the job.

C. Course Competencies: Upon successful completion of this course, each student will have demonstrated a through knowledge of the production process and the ability to operate equipment used in the performing arts industry.

- The various video, audio, lighting and other systems and how they are used in the production process.
- Equipment specific knowledge of the major components of the various systems, including, terminology and operation of control components.
- Personnel used in the production process, their job responsibilities and the importance of teamwork.
- Taking the leadership role in producing a long-form production and interacting with students in other programs.
- The post production of video, audio and graphic to product music oriented projects.

D. Academic Integrity: As stated in the General Catalog - "As it is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during the examination, obtaining information during an examination from a textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating.

Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, and student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

F. Verification of Workplace Competencies: This course puts into practice the previous ARTV courses have covered. Students learn how the team philosophy works and the synergy generated by teamwork.

II. SPECIFIC COURSE/INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS

A. Textbook and Other Materials: There are no texts required for this course. Students are encouraged to use the handouts from previous ARTV courses as resource materials. If students need to access these materials, students can get them online at www.stalcupsweb.com.

B. Attendance Policy: Punctual and regular class attendance is required for all students attending South Plains College. Roll will be checked when the class begins. The attendance policy as stated in the college catalog will be enforced: "Whenever absences become excessive and, in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student should be withdrawn from the course. In addition, an instructor is required to notify the Office of Student Services when the student has missed every class during any 14 consecutive calendar days period excluding holidays." (See the General Catalog). The first two absences will not affect the students grade, but each additional will result in a five point reduction from the students final grade. If you have 6 absences, excused or unexcused you may be dropped from the course. If a student is absent on a day that a project or test is given, he or she will not be allowed to make it up unless arrangements are made prior to the project or test day. Any student not present at roll taking will be counted absent unless there was prior notification to the instructor. A student who comes in after roll is taken can request that the absence be changed to a tardy after the class is over. Three tardies count as one absence.

C. Assignment Policy: All students in the class will work as a production team to produce three "Thursday Nite Live" & "AlternaTV" TV productions. Students will also produce approximately 20 hours of "Fests" over a Five-day period at the end of the semester. Students will rotate through each job and perform the assigned duties. Students must be present and participate in the production during the class period to receive credit for the program. Students are required to wear solid, dark clothes without any kind of text or graphics on them.

D. Grading Policy/Procedure and/or methods of evaluation: The class will produce three “Thursday Nite Live” & “AlternaTV” TV productions. Students will also produce approximately 20 hours of “Fests” over a five-day period at the end of the semester. These shows will air live over cable TV systems. Each class member will rotate through each crew position. Additionally, the class will create the show openings, closings, and promotions.

Instructor evaluation of attendance, punctuality, preparedness, attitude, and participation in classroom activities, discussions, and participation in productions will also be considered in the students final grade.

Also, all electronic devices, including cell phones and computers will be turned off during classes and shows unless there was prior approval by the instructor. Any student that violates the above will receive a “0” for that day and be asked to leave with an absence.

III. DIVERSITY STATEMENT: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

IV. ACCOMMODATIONS: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in the class should notify the Special Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Special Services Coordinator. For more information, call or visit the Special Services Office in the Student Services Building, 894-9611, ext. 2529.
